

The Cincinnati Waldorf School is currently hiring for...

KINDERGARTEN LEAD TEACHER

The Cincinnati Waldorf School is seeking a Kindergarten Lead Teacher for the 2021-22 school year. The ideal candidate will have a deep connection to anthroposophy, a confident classroom presence, strong social and communication skills, and a love for children and teaching. Our Early Childhood teachers enjoy being outdoors with the children in all safe weather conditions. The candidate will be expected to embrace collaboration with colleagues. Experience and active interest in a place-based and multicultural curriculum reflecting our diverse community will be vital to success. The ideal candidate will have completed Waldorf Early Childhood training at a WECAN-accredited teacher preparation program or be currently enrolled in a WECAN-accredited teacher preparation program and have Waldorf Early Childhood teaching experience. This is a full-time, salaried position with benefits including tuition remission.

The Cincinnati Waldorf School is a well-established, AWSNA full member school. Our current enrollment is at its highest level and represents a wide diversity across neighborhoods, economics, ethnicity, and lifestyle. Our strong programming includes Parent & Child classes, Preschool, Kindergarten, Grades 1-12, Eurythmy, Spanish, Mandarin, Handwork, Games, Woodwork, Strings, Choral, and Gardening. Our High School opened in the Fall of 2018. We value educators who understand and work with anthroposophical foundations of the curriculum, bring enthusiasm to build community, and participate fully in our rich festival life.

If you are interested, please submit a cover letter and resume listing background, training, experience, and three references. Please call or email Libby Rupp, Business Manager, at 513-541-0220 ext. 201, or lrupp@cinciwaldorf.org.